

Board of Chosen Freeholders
Salem County Health Department
98 Market Street
Salem, New Jersey 08079
Phone: (856) 935-7510
Fax: (856) 935-8483

August 12, 2009

Dear Sir or Madam,

I am not sure if you know anyone that would be interested in these Animal Control Officer courses, but there are a few offered throughout the state at various times if there were anyone who might be interested in becoming an Animal Control Officer. Please forward accordingly.

Sincerely,

Matthew J. Olejarski
Salem County Health Department
Environmental Division

URGENT NOTICE-- TIME SENSITIVE
Certified Animal Cruelty Investigator Course
Ocean County Police Academy

October 26 – November 4, 2009

Please insure that all individuals including health officers, animal control officers and law enforcement personnel in your jurisdiction who are responsible for animal control or the investigation of animal cruelty cases receive a copy of this notice.

The Ocean County Police Academy is offering the Animal Cruelty Investigators Course approved by the New Jersey Department of Health and Senior Services and the New Jersey Police Training Commission. This course meets the requirements of N.J.A.C. 8:23A-2.6. Successful completion of this course is required in order to be appointed as an Animal Cruelty Investigator by a New Jersey Municipality. Enrollment is open to any person 18 years of age or older and we anticipate being able to accommodate all applicants.

The seven-day course will be held at the Ocean County Police Academy located at 659 Ocean Ave, Lakewood, New Jersey. This course will be conducted from October 26 through November 4 2009. Classes will be held from 9:00 am to 5:00 pm each day. No classes will be held Oct 31, Nov 1 and Nov 3. Tuition for this seven-day program is $689, which includes all materials. Tuition payments, purchase orders or vouchers are to be made payable to Career Development Institute and mailed directly to PO Box 5024, Kendall Park, NJ 08824.

For further information or registration form please contact

Career Development Institute

1.800.244.6921 www.cditraining.org

URGENT NOTICE-- TIME SENSITIVE
Certified Animal Control Officer Course
Raritan Valley Community College
October 13 - 21, 2009

Raritan Valley Community College is offering the Animal Control Officers Course approved by the New Jersey Department of Health and Senior Services. This course meets the requirements of N.J.A.C. 8:23A-2.2.

Successful completion of this course is required in order to be appointed as an Animal Control Officer by a New Jersey Municipality. Additionally, this is the only Certified Animal Control Officer Course whose graduates are also certified by the American Red Cross for Pet First Aid and in Incident Command Systems 100 and 700 by the National Wildlife Fire Coordinating Group. Enrollment is open to any person 18 years of age or older. There is no requirement for prior experience or training to attend this course. Anyone interested in animal welfare personally or as a profession should attend. The seven-day course will be conducted at the Raritan Valley Community College weekdays from October 13-21, 2009. Classes will be held from 8:30 am to 4:30 pm each day. In addition to this classroom component participants must arrange for and complete a 20-hour field training component. Tuition for this program is $749, which includes all materials. Tuition payments, purchase orders or vouchers are to be made payable to Career Development Institute and mailed directly to PO Box 5024, Kendall Park, NJ 08824.

For further information or registration forms please contact

Career Development Institute

1.800.244.6921 www.cditraining.org.

URGENT NOTICE-- TIME SENSITIVE
Certified Animal Control Officer Course
Mercer County Community College
Saturdays only – Sept 26 – Nov 7

We are pleased to offer the New Jersey Certified Animal Control Officer Course at Mercer County Community College. This course is approved by the New Jersey Department of Health and Senior Services. Successful completion of this course is required in order to be appointed as an Animal Control Officer by a New Jersey Municipality. It is also a valuable training program for animal shelter workers, rescue workers and all others interested in animal welfare. This course meets the requirements of N.J.A.C. 8:23A-2.2 et. seq. Classes are held from 9 to 5 on September 26, October 3, 10, 17, 24, 31 and November 7, 2009

Attendance at all sessions, completion of academic tasks and a 20-hour field experience is required for completion of this program. Upon successful completion, students will receive a certification as an Animal Control Officer from the New Jersey Department of Health and Senior Services, certification in Pet First Aid from the American Red Cross and a certification in Incident Command Systems 100 and 700 by the National Wildlife Fire Coordinating Group. Enrollment is open to any person 18 years of age or older. There is no requirement for prior experience or training to attend this course. Anyone interested in animal welfare personally or as a profession should attend.

Registration will be through Mercer County College. The tuition is $749 and includes all materials and fees. Contact Mercer County Community College at 609-570-3311 for course registration. Contact Career Development Institute at 732-821-6997 with any additional course content or certification questions you may have.

For further information or registration forms please contact

Career Development Institute

1.800.244.6921 www.cditraining.org.