Twenty –First Pittsgrove Day is fast approaching!

This year we will celebrate at Green Branch Park on Saturday, May 21 at 11am.
Our rain date will be Sunday, May 22.

The festivities will begin at Green Branch Park with an opening ceremony including a tribute to our Armed Forces followed by a day of food, music, games, crafters and many other activities.

We want to make the twenty-first Pittsgrove Day the most special and most memorable one! It is becoming more important to have support from our local businesses and “supporters” of Pittsgrove than ever before. Our past events have averaged entertaining over 3000 people with a day families want to share. This festival is currently only presented because there is no cost to the taxpayers of Pittsgrove! Please be part of allowing this tradition to continue!!

We have, therefore, developed four levels of support. Any size donation is invaluable, though!
We ask you mark the “memo” section of your check: Pittsgrove Day 2011
