6. New Business:
 - a) Pittsgrove Day – 5/21/22, Rain Date 5/22/21

Eileen will email the booth map to everyone in the morning. Deb & Herb will bring a Preservation sign. Eileen has applications and information handouts; Kevin will bring a 1923 antique tractor. Booth will be staffed in the morning by Eileen and Deb and Herb in the afternoon. Other members will be in/out depending on their other obligations.

7. Old Business:

Status of current preservation efforts: no updates.

Crisanti – Eileen heard from Kris Alexander. Settlement on this farm will occur on 5/27/22. Our portion of the cost will be on the Township Committee agenda for 5/25/22 for payment.

Macauly – new application picked up. This is a 16-acre farm on Crow Pond with an additional 8 acres associated with the house. Eileen spoke with Mrs. Macauly about preservation but the application has not been returned yet.

JWP Properties

Norm said they're still interested in preserving this property but are unable to do it now. Committee wants to discuss options with Katie before making a final decision regarding the survey and appraisal costs. Issue tabled until the July meeting.
